Publication in Federal Register.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Interior shall publish in the Federal Register the boundaries and descriptions of the lands declared to be held in trust by this Act.

SEC. 3. All of the right, title, and interest of the United States in all minerals, including gas and oil, underlying the lands hereby declared to be held in trust for the Pueblo of Santa Ana, are hereby declared to be held by the United States in trust for the benefit and use of the Pueblo of Santa Ana.

SEC. 4. (a) Nothing in this Act shall deprive any person of any valid existing right of use, possession, contract right, interest, or title which that person may have in any of the trust lands within the purview of this Act, or of any existing right of access to public domain lands over and across such trust lands, as determined by the Secretary of the Interior. All existing mineral leases involving lands declared to be held in trust by this Act, including oil and gas leases, which may have been issued or approved pursuant to Federal law, prior to enactment of this Act, shall remain in force and effect in accordance with the provisions thereof. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, all applications for mineral leases involving such lands, including oil and gas leases, pending on the date of enactment of this Act shall be rejected and the advance rental payments returned to the applicants.

(b) Those persons holding grazing permits from the United States Bureau of Land Management in the grazing unit known as the Bernalillo Community Allotment (Number 551), Sandoval County, New Mexico, as of the date of enactment of this Act are hereby granted the right to continue those grazing rights, subject to all otherwise applicable terms, conditions, rules, and regulations of the Bureau of Land Management governing such grazing rights, for a period of not to exceed ten years. Such grazing rights shall be administered by the Bureau of Land Management in accordance with applicable rules and regulations governing such rights on the Federal public domain, and may be canceled by the Bureau of Land Management in accordance with its regulations for failure to meet the terms and conditions of the existing permits, or failure to abide by applicable rules and regulations. Grazing fees shall be payable by the permittees to the Bureau of Land Management at prevailing rates, which fees shall be remitted by said Bureau to the Pueblo of Santa Ana within 30 days of receipt. Such grazing rights shall be nontransferable, except that they may be relinquished at any time to the Pueblo of Santa Ana. In the event of cancellation or relinquishment of said grazing rights as provided above, such rights shall not be renewed, nor shall any new permits be issued: Provided, however, That no grazing fees shall be payable by the said existing permittees for the first five years following enactment of this Act.

(c) Subject to subsections (a) and (b) of this section, any property held in trust under this Act for the Pueblo of Santa Ana shall be administered in accordance with the laws and regulations applicable to other property held in trust by the United States for the Indian tribe of such pueblo.

SEC. 5. (a) Any and all gross receipts derived from, or which relate to, the property declared to be held in trust by this Act which were received by the United States subsequent to the acquisition by the United States of such property and prior to the date of the enactment of this Act (including State school lands referred to in section 7), from whatever source and for whatever purpose, shall, as of the date of enactment of this Act, be deposited to the credit of the Pueblo of Santa Ana and may be expended by such tribe for such beneficial programs as the tribal governing body may determine.

(b) All gross receipts (including, but not limited to, bonuses, rents, and royalties) hereafter derived by the United States from any contract, permit, or lease referred to in section 4(a) of this Act, shall be administered in accordance with the laws and regulations applicable to receipts from property held in trust by the United States for Indian tribes.

SEC. 6. All property declared to be held in trust for the benefit and use of the Pueblo of Santa Ana pursuant to this Act, and all the receipts therefrom referred to in section 5 of this Act, shall be exempt from Federal, State, and local taxation so long as such property is held in trust by the United States. Any distribution of such receipts to tribal members shall neither be considered as income or resources of such members for purposes of any such taxation nor as income or resources or otherwise utilized as the basis for denying or reducing the financial assistance or other benefits to which such member or his household would otherwise be entitled to under the Social Security Act or any other Federal or federally assisted program.

42 USC 1305.

SEC. 7. (a) For the purpose of improving the land tenure pattern and consolidating Santa Ana Pueblo lands, the Secretary of the Interior is authorized and directed to acquire, by purchase or exchange, under such regulations as he may prescribe, all State school lands in township 13 north, range 3 east, sections 2 and 16; township 14 north, range 3 east, section 36; and township 14 north, range 4 east, section 32, State of New Mexico, containing 2004.05 acres, more or less; and interests therein, including improvements, mineral rights, and water rights. In exercising his authority to acquire such lands by exchange, the Secretary is authorized to utilize unappropriated public lands in the State of New Mexico. The properties so exchanged shall be of approximately equal value, and the Secretary may accept cash from or pay cash to the State of New Mexico in such an exchange in order to equalize the values of the properties exchanged.

(b) The Secretary may execute any title documents necessary to effect the exchanges authorized by this section.

Title documents.

(c) Title to all lands acquired under the provisions of this section shall be taken in the name of the United States in trust for Santa Ana Pueblo.

SEC. 8. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, during the 3 years following enactment of this Act, the Secretary may, after giving the tribe 30 days written notice and after consulting with the tribe, enter on the lands described in the first section of this Act to identify, investigate, examine, and remove any paleontological resources from such lands: Provided, That no explorations, surveys, or excavations shall be authorized within a 200-yard radius of the following shrines or religious sites:

- (1) Santiyaku 'Kə Kura (Santiago's Corral);
- (2) Santiyaku Ka' mə (Santiago's Home);
- (3) Santiyaku 'Kaisru (Santiago's Field);
- (4) 'Tsitsi Sruwii (Water Snake Head);

- (5) Tuyuuna (Snake Head Shrine-Canjilon Hill);
- (6) Shayeka Kauwatsesruma (Hunter Shrine);
- (7) 'Kuyau 'Kapesru (Old Lady Sits Shrine);
- (8) Huchaniitse (White House Shrine);
- (9) Dyadyu Tsinautani (Bobcat Point);
- (10) 'Kasleri 'Kumiyeisruma (Clown Point);
- (11) Chapiyu 'Ka 'kuyanisru (Chapiyu's Trail);
- (12) Shawiti 'tsuyu (Parrot Point);
- (13) Hanə 'Kai (Sacred Clown Society Shrine);
- (14) Yusrkuma (Corn Cob Shrine);

Such resources so removed are the property of the United States and shall be administered under laws applicable to federally owned resources. Paleontological resources on such lands that are not removed from the lands pursuant to this section shall be managed in a manner that will permit the greatest possible public benefit, use, and study of the resources, consistent with tribal law and practices.

(b) Any lands excavated pursuant to this section shall be reclaimed and restored to their original condition by the Secretary, as nearly as he determines may be practicable.

Approved October 21, 1978.
